

Career Counselling

Aims and Objectives:

Career Counselling Cell is introduced with a vision to create opportunities for students to ensure that his/her skills are properly polished and are oriented in the right direction. The cell aims towards creating awareness among the students about various market scenario and at the same time promoting entrepreneurship.

To achieve these objectives, the cell arranges the following program for students along with other various technical and non-technical training programs.

- To develop students according to need of industry some industry based training programs are organised.
- To impart training to the students programs like personal interview techniques personality development are organised.
- To promote higher education visits to HEI are organised.
- To cater to the need of job market the cell organises various job oriented training courses like Back-office, Computer training.
- To provide good employment opportunities Recruitment drives are organised for students.