Based on the positive response, Nagpur Group Commander and District officials are working on extending NCC training to rural areas as well.

IUML highlights corruption in ration shops to Collector

AN Indian Union Minister (Lok Sabha) has visited District Collector Ravindra Thakur and given a memorandum regarding black marketing and the corruption that is going on in the ration shops in the city.

The nation-wide lockdown raised the demand of ration in the city and local administration is working hard to provide essential commodities through ration shops to citizens.

Administration is also working hard to provide ramps not only to the ration card holders but also to those who have no cards yet need this lifeline. The organization, in the meantime, stated that citizens are complaining that ration shops are not giving their full ration and they are willing to pay high rates.

Talib Khan of Indian Union Muslim League (IUMIL) also appealed Collector to provide them and more ration to those who have no ration cards yet and specially those who are needy and poor. Usman Nabi, Sheikh Gadfi, Mohammad Vazir and others were present during the meeting.
